

ALVINE LUMITI

■ +254 706 074 187 | ✉ makutualvine@gmail.com | LinkedIn: linkedin.com/in/alvine-makutu |
GitHub: github.com/Mal-archLumi

Professional Summary

Motivated and detail-oriented Information Technology student with strong hands-on experience in web and mobile application development. Active leader in university tech communities, serving as Projects Lead at AWS Club and member of Google Developer Student Club. Skilled in full-stack development and passionate about leveraging technology for digital transformation, with proven ability to lead projects, collaborate across teams, and deliver impactful solutions.

Education

Mount Kenya University
Bachelor of Science in Information Technology

Projects & Leadership Experience

AWS Club – Projects Lead

- Coordinated and guided technical projects within the AWS Club, fostering teamwork and cloud adoption among peers.

Google Developer Student Club – Active Member

- Engaged in collaborative projects, coding sessions, and peer learning within the GDSC community.

Kenyamart (E-commerce Platform)

- Built a functional e-commerce site using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and MongoDB.

Mkulima Hub (Farmers' Community App)

- Developed a digital hub for farmers with features including online communities, a marketplace, "educational YouTube integration, and a custom search functionality (Flutter, Supabase, MongoDB).

Personal Portfolio & Side Projects

- Designed and deployed a personal portfolio website; built small games and learning projects using React, PHP, "MySQL, HTML/CSS/JavaScript to strengthen programming and problem-solving skills.

Technical Skills

- Programming: JavaScript, React, Flutter, PHP, SQL, HTML, CSS
- Databases: MongoDB, MySQL, Supabase
- Cloud & Tools: AWS (beginner), Git/GitHub
- Collaboration: Team leadership, project coordination, public speaking